T11: Aṅga gada mitur[̄]ai, aṅga maḍu mituru (1)

“The two friends and Santhimariyanbu”

Māle: ʿAbdullāh Ṣādiq^{*}; Addū: Ḥassan Saʿīd

^{*} The text in the standard language was published in a newspaper; cp. fig. 2, p. 174. The translation into English appeared in Finiashi: Heard in the Islands, ed. L. PRUNER, vol. 1, Māle 1988, 1 ff.

- 1 ⟨'aga gada miturā 'aga maḍu miturā mī varas̄ boḍu de 'ekuverinneve⟩
/aṅga gada miturā aṅga maḍu miturā mī varas̄ boḍu de ekuverinneve\
- anga gada miturāi anga maḍa miturāi de vennakī (verinakī) de r̥tehin (rahumatterin). ◄
Anga Gadha Mithuru and Anga Madu Mithuru were two good friends.
- 2 ⟨'e' re'aku, 'aga maḍu mituru binbi māfuś kaigen 'atiri matīgai⟩

Hearing him speak, Santhimariyanbu was so frightened that she upset her whole bag and ran away, leaving him covered with teeth sticking to his face.

- 17 ⟨mi kamā varaś dera vegen)
- /mi kam-āi varaś dera vegen\
- anga gada miturā mi kamāi deetere varā hitāma koffi.* ◀

Anga Gadha Mithuru was very sad about this.

"The two friends and the flying jar"

Māle: ʿAbdullāh Ṣādiq*

* The text in the standard language was published in a newspaper; cp. fig. 2, p. 174. The English translation appeared in Finiashi: Heard in the Islands, ed. L. PRUNER, vol. 3, Māle 1988, 1 ff.

- 13 ⟨re'as vuren mi rē bar_e, e re'as vure mi rē bar_e⟩
/re'as vuren mi rē baru_e, e re'as vure mi rē baru_e.\
"Tonight it's heavier than last night."
- 14 ⟨mi lava'ige 'aḍāi 'eku jādī ma'caś 'arān faśaifi 'eve.⟩
/mi lavaige aḍāi eku jādī maccaś arān faśaifi eve.\
And, with the singing of that song, Aŋga Maḍu Mithuru felt the jar rising up.
- 15 ⟨'aramun 'aramun gos duniye vaś kuburakaś vī mā, 'ekati 'aneka'caś bunā 'aḍu 'ive 'eve.⟩
/aramun aramun gos dunie vaś kuṃburakaś vī mā, ekati anekaccaś bunā ḍu ive eve.\
It rose up and up until the earth became a small ball. Aŋga Maḍu Mithuru heard the pigeons asking each other,
- 16 ⟨mi rē gendānī, kon bimakaś hēyeve? bune'peve.⟩
/mi rē gendānī, kon bimakaś heyo eve? bune'fi eve.\
"Where shall we take the jar tonight?"
- 17 ⟨mi rē gendānī lō bimaśeve.⟩
/mi rē gendānī lō bimaś eve.\
"Tonight we'll take it to the bronze land."
- 18 ⟨'iru koḷakun tane'ga'i baha'ta'ifi 'eve.⟩
/iru koḷakun tanekgai bahaṭṭaifi eve.\
Then he felt the jar lowered and being set down somewhere.
- 19 ⟨jādīn nukut 'iru, 'e sorumen 'e duhi gos vanī, mā duruga'eve.⟩
/jādīn nukut iru, e sorumen e duhi gos vanī, mā durugai eve.\
After the pigeons flew away, he came out of the jar, and started walking around.
- 20 ⟨'aga maḍu mituru 'e bimaś fa'ibā hiḡālā hedumaś fahu'e tāge gasgahun mēvā bide, kā

He saw lots of fruit trees. After eating some fruit, he went back to sleep in the jar.
- 21 ⟨'ane' duvas vefai 'iru 'ossi 'ehākaś 'iru vumun, kotaruta' 'atu ve'je 'eve.⟩
/anek duvas vefai iru ossi ehākaś iru vumun, kotarutak atu vejje eve.\
The next day, at the same time in the evening he heard the same noises as the night before,
- 22 ⟨ras kotaru digu magu kuḷi'as kuḷi jahā kuru magu kuḷi'as kuḷi jahā jaḍi matin tin faharu and the king pigeon did the same warlike folk dance as on the previous day. With the song "Tonight it's heavier than last night,"

- 23 ⟨ma'caś 'arā duniye vaś kuburakaś vī mā, ras kotaru'ahāli 'eve.⟩
/maccaś arā dunie vaś kuṃburakaś vī mā, ras kotaru ahāli eve.\
he felt the jar rising. Again, as it rose up until the earth became a small ball the king pigeon asked,
- 24 ⟨mi rē gendānī, kon bimakaś hēyeve? bunēve.⟩
/mi rē gendānī, kon bimakaś heyo eve? buni eve.\
"Where shall we take the jar tonight?"

25

⟨mi rē gendānī, rihi bimaševē.
/mi rē gendānī, rihi bimaš eve.⟩

"Tonight we'll take it to the silver land," answered the others.

26

⟨'iru koḷakun jādī tane'ga'i baha'tāfai, kotaruta' diyā mā, e bimaš fa'ibā kuḷa rihi koḷe' jādī'as lā

After some time, Anga Madu Mithuru felt the jar being lowered onto the ground, and heard the pigeons leaving. Slowly, he crept out of the jar. There was silver everywhere. Seeing fruit trees, he ate their fruit and collected some silver. Then he got back in the jar.

27

⟨hama nidili tanā'eku hen kotarutakuge 'aḍu 'ivī'je 'eve.⟩
/hama nidili tan-āi eku hen kotarutakuge aḍu ivijje eve.⟩

That night, once again,

28

⟨kurī rē fadāin kanta' kurumaš fahu, jādī hifa'igen, 'uduhēn faśāifi 'eve.⟩
/kurī rē fadain kanta kurumaš fahu, jādī hifaigen, uduhēn faśaifi eve.⟩

the same events took place as before.

29

⟨duniye vaš kuburakaš vī mā, ras kotaru'aha'ifi 'eve.⟩
/dunīe vaš kuṁburakaš vī mā, ras kotaru ahaifi eve.⟩

He heard the king pigeon ask the others

30

⟨mi rē gendānī, kon bimakaš hēyeve? bunñeve.⟩
/mi rē gendānī, kon bimakaš heyo eve? buni eve.⟩

where they should take the jar.

31

⟨mi rē gendānī, ran bimaševē.
/mi rē gendānī, ran bimaš eve.⟩

They answered that they would take the jar to the golden land.

32

⟨'iru koḷe' vumun, jādī tane'ga'i baha'tāfai, kotaruta' higa'je 'eve.⟩
/iru koḷek vumun, jādī tanekgai bahattāfai, kotarutak hiṅgajje eve.⟩

In a little while he felt the jar being lowered onto the ground and heard the pigeons fly away.

33

⟨'aga maḍu mituru jādīn 'arā, bin mācaš fēbi'iru, tede'me 'eve.⟩
/aṅga maḍu mituru jādīn arā, bin maccaš fēbi iru, tede-me eve.⟩

Anga Madu Mithuru crawled out of the jar and saw that what the pigeons said was true.

34

/hus ran eve.⟩

There was gold all around him.

35

⟨den bēnun varakaš rantā naga'i gengenes jādī'as 'alā hadāigen vade 'ovvā kotaruta' 'atu ve'je

 ▶raśi tibi hei muskulin eagē vaśai irifei tibe everie maulūdu fatāś kēi benafie.◀
 When the most venerable old men of the island gathered around him and sat down, they asked him to start the Maulud.
- 31 ▶ehen vī mei, ee hite etere rāvafei ō go' matin ede mānane' etta' kē faśafi.◀
 ▶ehen vī mei, ea hite etere rāvafei ot got matin ede mānane' ettak kēs faśafi.◀
 So, maintaining his dignified attitude, he began chanting nonsense,
- 32 ▶ēge etere bae divehi akurāi arabi alāi himenei.◀
 ▶ēge etere bae divehi akura-āi arabi alā-āi himenei.◀
 combining Maldivian words and Arabic sounds.
- 33 ▶emmennaśas ee kēi etta' eṅgei kama' hī koffee ede hama jehige.◀

Survey of historical documents

Copper-plate Documents in Evēla and Dives akuru

(Lōm āfanu)

- L1: This lōm āfanu was registered as no. 1 by BELL (1940, 180) who named it after “Haddummati” (today Lām) Atoll; given that its subject matter is about the donation of a mosque on the island “Gamuduvu” (today Gamu or Gan) of this atoll¹, the name “Gamu Lōm āfanū” would be more appropriate. According to BELL, this lōm āfanu must have consisted at least of 17 plates originally, the (authentic) page numbers of the manuscript ending with mn = 17. 15 plates have been preserved, with one plate missing at the beginning. A “rough translation” by BELL can be found under no. 907 (86/82) as part of the author’s bequest in the Government Archives, Colombo (Sri Lanka)². According to this translation, the numbering of the plates ranges from f (= 2; “i”) to ms (= 17). The fragments that were left unaccounted for by BELL have provisionally been subsumed under mx and my here. A plate which BELL subsumed as no. 19 under “Haddummati No. 2” (cf. L4) seems to be a further fragment of the present lōm āfanu given that it exhibits six lines as all the plates listed under L1 do; this plate is referred to as mz here. The lōm āfanu is dated into the year “582 after the Prophet (Muhammad) went to heaven”; if this passage refers not to the Ascension of the Prophet (mīr āḡ) but to his death (in A.D. 632), the lōm āfanu must have been written about 1194 A.D. This dating coincides with the statement that the lōm āfanu was published in the third year of the reign of King Gaganādītya³. According to the Chronicle of the Kings (Rādavdi, cf. below: RC 11,10), the beginning of the reign of “Gannādītta” must have occurred in A.H. 588 ≈ A.D. 1192; the king ruled for seven years.
- L2: “Isdū Lōm āfanū”: This lōm āfanu which is named after the island Isdū (in Haddummati or Lām Atoll), is the most voluminous one that has been preserved; it comprises 20 plates à 2 pages à 5 lines. Its first edition was published in 1986 by HASSAN AHMED MANIKU and G.D. WIJAYAWARDHANA (“Isdhoo Loamaafaanu”, Colombo: Royal Asiatic Society). The dating of this lōm āfanu is identical with that of L1.
- L3: “Daṁbidū Lōm āfanū”: This document, called “Eterukolu (Palace) Lomafanu” or “Lōm āfanu of the inner palace” by BELL (1940, 180 f.), would be better named after the island of Daṁbidū (in Haddummati or Lām Atoll), because its subject is the donation of a mosque on this island. According to BELL, it must have contained 16 plates (counted from $m = 1$ to $mg = 16$) in the beginning, with plate 14 ($mg = 16$) missing already at the time of BELL, who transcribed plates m (single-sided: “A”) and mg (front page: “A”) only. A complete but not very reliable edition was published in 1982 by the “National Centre for Linguistic and Historical Research” in Male (then directed by HASSAN AHMED MANIKU) under the title of “Loamaafaanu: Transliteration, Translation and notes on Palaeography. Vol. 1”; a former attempt of reading (by ALEE NAJEEB) has recently appeared (2001). This lōmafānūs dated into the year “583 after the Ascension of the Prophet to heaven” and into the fourth year of the reign of King Gaganādītya; thus, the year A.D. 1195 can be regarded as the date of its origin.

- L4: This lōmāfanu which BELL (1940, 182) registered under the name of the “Haddummati Atoll” as well (cp. L1 above), should be better named “Kudahuvaḍū Lōmāfanū” after the island it concerns (in Nīlandu South or Dāl Atoll). It contains 8 plates (à 2 pages à 7 lines) which were presumably written by two different hands, possibly not at the same time. The lōmāfanu has not yet been edited so far; a rough translation with a transcription of the first two pages can be found in BELL’s bequest (Government Archives, Colombo) under the signature 906/86:81, however. The “Nelles-Jumbo-Guide Malediven”, München 1994, p. 47 shows a total view of the given lōmāfanu but erroneously identifies it with the “Isdhoo loamaafaana” (sic; cf. L2 above). The date of the lōmāfanu refers to the sixth year of the reign of Queen (!) Rāarādesvara, who, according to the chronicle (RC 12,7), ascended the throne in A.H. 630 ($\approx$ A.D. 1232); accordingly, the lōmāfanu must have been written A.D. 1237-1238.
- L5: The first edition of a document named “Bodugalu Lōmāfanū” can be found in BELL (1940, 182 ff). According to this edition, it contained 10 plates (à 2 pages à 5 lines) at BELL’s time. Its date, which is written in Arabic on the first plate, refers to the year A.H. 758, approximately corresponding to A.D. 1356 as the year of its origin. It coincides with the reign period of Queen Rādaābarnna, who, according to the chronicle (RC 17,1), ascended the throne (for the first time) in A.H. 748.
- L6: This single plate of a lōmāfanu was published by BELL (1930, 541 ff.) as “no. 1”; according to BELL, it belonged to “Mr. E. ’Abdul Hamīd Dīdī” in Colombo at that time. BELL stated a high degree of similarity with the “Bodugalu Lōmāfanu” (L5) from the impression of its handwriting and the figuring of the words in general. There are no references as to the date of origin.
- L7: Another single plate of a lōmāfanu it was published by BELL (1930, 552 ff.) as “no. 2”. There are no references to the date of origin either.
- L8: Fragment (about the half) of a single plate which was published by BELL (1930, 560 ff.) as “no. 3”. The al-ġazī Ibrāhīm Rīnā[kinage] mentioned here (the name can be supplemented according to the Haññāmīdū-Fatkū, cf. F6 below) seems to be identical with Sultan Ibrāhīm III who reigned from A.H. 993 to 1017 ($\approx$ A.D. 1585-1609) and was killed on 28th Šawwāl 1017 A.H. ($\approx$ 4.2.1609) when fighting against Malabar pirates. With high probability, the lōmāfanu refers to the time of reign of Muḥammad Šuġāī Imād ud-dīn (A.H. 1029-1058 $\approx$ A.D. 1620-1648; cf. BELL 1930, 561 f.).

Documents in Dives-akuru on paper and wood

(Fatkoḷu)

- F1: “Koḷufuṣi Fatkoḷu”: The document is undated but it can with certainty be assigned to the period of the reign of Sultan Muḥammad Boḍu Takurufānu (between A.D. 1573 and A.D. 1585). It was first edited by BELL (1940, 188 f.). Its subject is the donation of a mosque on the island of Koḷufuṣi in Mulaku (Mīm) Atoll.
- F2: “Hasan Pāinā Fatkoḷu”: An unedited fatkoḷu dated the 17th Šawwal A.H. 1036 (≈ 1.7.1627). Clearly it notarises a decoration.
- F3: “Gan Fatkoḷu”: The document which was edited for the first time by BELL (1940, 190 f.) is also called “Filā Fatkoḷu”; it consists of an inscription on a wooden board of 1,70 × 0,54 m which attests the donation of a mosque on Gan Island in Addū Atoll. It is dated the 23rd Muḥarram A.H. 1062 (≈ 5.1.1652), i.e. the fifth year of the reign of Sultan Ibrāhīm Iskandar I (time of reign 1648-1687). A coloured photograph of a part of the inscription can be found in M. AMIN, D. WILLETTS, P. MARSHALL, “Journey through Maldives”, Nairobi 1992, 14.
- F4: “Bā Miskit Fatkoḷu”: The text attesting the donation of a mosque of the same name in Māle is written on a wooden beam which has been preserved in the Māle Museum since the destruction of the mosque some years ago. A first edition of the inscription (transcribed into Tāna) was published in MM, 38 f. The text is dated the 11th Ramadān A.H. 1062 (≈ 16.8.1652); this date again coincides with the fifth year of reign of Ibrāhīm Iskandar I.
- F5: “Gamu Fatkoḷu”: The unedited fatkoḷu attests a donation for the rebuilding of the Friday Mosque on Gamu Island in Hāddummati (Lām) Atoll (cp. also L1) by Sultan Muḥammad (son of Hāggī ‘Alī Tukkalā) who reigned from A.H. 1104-1112 ≈ A.D. 1692-1701. It is dated into the year A.H. 1108 (≈ A.D. 1696).
- F6: “Haññamīdū Fatkoḷu”: This unedited fatkoḷu (cp. fig. 5, p. 200) is not identical with the document registered and partly edited by BELL (1930, 565, note 2) under the name of “Hañña Mīdū Fat-kolu” (sic) although both documents refer to the grave of the same Al-ğāzī Ibrāhīm (cf. also L8) on the island of Haññamīdū in Ari (Alif) Atoll. The given fatkoḷu notarises that Sultan Muḥammad ‘Imād-ud-dīn in the seventh year of his reign transferred the care for this grave to a certain ‘Alī Muqrī (“recitator of the Qurān”). Probably, this Muḥammad ‘Imād-ud-dīn is the second Sultan known under this name who reigned A.H. 1116-1133 (≈ A.D. 1704-1721); correspondingly, this fatkoḷu must have been written by 1711 A.D.
- F7: “Isseri Fatkoḷu”: This document contains a decree by Sultan Muzaffar Muḥammad ‘Imād ud-dīn II who reigned from A.H. 1116 to 1133 (≈ A.D. 1704-1721); it is dated into the year A.H. 1127 ≈ A.D. 1715 and concerns a donation to the island Isseri in Nīlandū South (Dāl) Atoll.
- F8: “Kaṇḍūdū Fatkoḷu”: The unedited manuscript which is dated into the year A.H. 1147 (≈ A.D. 1735) attests a donation for the Friday Mosque on the island Kaṇḍūdū in Kolumadulu (Tā) Atoll by Sultan Ibrāhīm Iskandar II who reigned from A.H. 1133 to 1163 (≈ A.D. 1721-1750).

- F9: “Kuramati Fatkoḷu”: The undated, unedited fatkoḷu (cf. fig. 6, p. 210) attests the installation of a certain Mūsā, son of Māmūd, as the Ḥaṭīb of an island with the same name in “Huvadummatti” (Huvadū or Gāf) Atoll by Sultān Ibrāhīm Iskandar II (cf. F8 above). An exact date is missing.
- F10: “Kudāhuvadū Fatkdu”: This document was edited by BELL (1940, 193 ff.; the illustration given there as plate M contains but the beginning up to line 21). It is dated into the year A.H. 1164 (≈ A.D. 1751), i.e. the second year of the reign of Sultān Muḥammad ‘Imād-ud-dīn III (reigning period A.H. 1163-1173 ≈ A.D. 1750-1759). It approves the renewal of an older “lomāpanu” concerning the mosque of the island Kudāhuvadū in Nīlandu (Dāl) Atoll. Possibly this refers to the Lōmāfanu “L4” (cf. above).
- F11: “Diamigilī Fatkdu”: This unedited fatkoḷu is dated into the year A.H. 1164 (≈ A.D. 1751) too, but it refers to the third year of the reign of Muḥammad ‘Imād-ud-dīn III. It attests the donation of a mosque on the island of Diamigilī in Kdumadulu (Tā) Atoll (a coloured photograph of this document is printed in “Maldives. A Nation of Islands”, Male’ 1983, 20 f.).
- F12: “Tinadū Fatkdu”: This unedited and undated document was not issued by a Sultān but by different officials. It refers (maybe as a court decision?) to a certain Don Kañbuloge from Havodḍā or Tinadū island (in Huvadū South or Gāf-Dāl Atoll). Probably it was written in the second half of the 18th c.
- F13: “Havodḍā Fatkdu”: This unedited fatkoḷu which cannot be dated exactly notarises a gift to a certain Hassan, son of Muḥammad Ḥaṭīb, from the island Havodḍā in “Huvadummatti” (Huvadū South or Gāf-Dāl) Atoll. Like the preceding document, it probably dates from the second half of the 18th c.

The Chronicle (Rādavḍi)

- RA: A Tāna manuscript of the Rādavḍi, i.e. the Maldivian chronicle of the kings, which was registered as variant “A” by BELL who published but a short excerpt (one page only; cf. 1940, 198 f.). This version of the Rādavḍi ends with Sultān Muḥammad Kalaminjā, i.e. Muẓaffar Muḥammad ‘Imād ud-dīn II, who reigned from A.H. 1116 to 1133 ≈ A.D. 1704-1721. According to BELL, the manuscript consists of 31 pages.
- RB: A manuscript of the Rādavḍi written in Dives akuru and registered as “B” by BELL who published an excerpt of it. According to BELL, the last name that was recorded in this ms. was that of Sultān Muḥammad ‘Imād-ud-dīn III who reigned from A.H. 1163 to 1173 ≈ A.D. 1750-1759; thus, it must have been written about 40 years later than ms. A (cf. above).
- RC: A second Tāna manuscript of the Rādavḍi which was edited in facsimile in 1979 by the Divehi bahāi (ārīxaś xidmat kurā qaūmī marukazu [National Center for Linguistic and Historical Research] in Māle. It consists of 38 pages, the content of p. 10 being almost a duplicate of that of p. 9; a fact that can possibly be explained by assuming a change of the underlying manuscript model. This variant — which represents the only complete version of the Rādavḍi we dispose of so far — ends with Ṣayḥ Ḥāḡḡī Hasan who reigned from A.H. 1193 to 1213 ≈ A.D. 1779-1799.

Inscriptions in Dives akuru

Inscriptions from Addū:

- IDAH 1: An unedited inscription which cannot be dated exactly, on the gravestone of a certain Don ʿAlī Takurupānu, son of Hassan Takurupānu and ʿAīša Bīpānu, from the graveyard of the Medu Mosque in Hitadū.
- IDAM 1: An unedited inscription on the gravestone of a certain Šanfa, grand-daughter (?) of Muhammad Paṇḍiā Takurupānu, dated 11th (?) Šābān A.H. 1134 (≈ 19.5.1625). An excellent photograph of this gravestone has been published in “Nelles-Jumbo-Guide Malediven”, München 1994, 186.

Inscriptions from Māle:

- IDMBM 1: Inscription on the gravestone of a certain ʿAīša Bīpānu, daughter of Alī Baḍeri Takurupānu from Takandū and Aminā Kaṁbulōge from Mārandū (both islands are located in Tiladummati North or Hā-Alif Atoll), died 5th Šābān 1148 (≈ 31.12.1735), from the cemetery of a “Baṇḍāra Mosque” in Māle. A picture of this stone can be found in BELL 1924 (pl. 1), its transcription and translation ib. p. 291; for the person of ʿAlī Baḍeri Takurupānu cf. ib. 298. The stone seems not to exist any longer today. It was neither mentioned in the description of the Baṇḍāra Mosque of Henveru in MM, no. 39, p. 99 f., nor in the description of the Baṇḍāra Mosque of Māfannu, ib. no. 24, p. 66 f.
- IDMDM 1: Inscription on the gravestone of a certain Šanfā Bīpānu, daughter of the Wazīr Hāggī Hussain Famuladēri, died 22nd Ġumād al-ḏīra A.H. 1114 (≈ 13.11.1702), from the cemetery of the former Dolidan Mosque in Māle. A picture of the gravestone can be found in BELL 1924 (pl. 1), a transcription and translation of the inscription ib., p. 291. Obviously, the stone does not exist any longer either.
- IDMDM 2: Inscription on the tombstone of a certain ʿAīša Kabulōge, daughter of Muḥammad Mēnāi Kalōge, died 15th Raġab 1105 A.H. (≈ 12.3.1694). In MM, no. 14, p. 29, this inscription was transcribed into Tāna and listed as No. 5. According to a photograph (private property of HASSAN AHMED MANIKU), the original place of this gravestone was to the left of that registered under IDMDM 1, in the graveyard of the Dolidan Mosque in Māle. Obviously it has not been preserved either.
- IDMEM 1: Inscription on the tombstone of a certain Maria Kaṁbādi Kilage, daughter of Sultan Muhammad ʿImād-ud-dīn (I, reigned from A.H. 1029 to 1058 A.H. ≈ A.D. 1620-1648), and one Fātuma Kilage from Bārašu (today Bārā in Tiladummati North / Hā-Alif Atoll), from the graveyard of the former Eterekoīlu (“Inner Palace”) Mosque; the date of the death is given as the “14th Ramaḍān” without a year being engraved. A picture of the gravestone was provided by BELL (1924, pl. II), together with a transcription and translation (ib., p. 292). In MM, the mosque is listed by the name of “Masġid ʿAfīf-ud-dīn” (nr. 32, p. 82), the stone appearing as no. 3. Probably it has not been preserved.

- IDMEM 3: Inscription on a pillar which reminds of a tombstone by its form; it was placed near the “Eterekoilu Mosque” (Inner Palace Mosque) in Māle. It contains a report on the capturing of Māle by Malabar conquerors on the 13th Safar A.H. 1166 (≈ 12.12.1752), who on this occasion kidnapped Sultan Muhammad ‘Imād-ud-dīn III, and the reconquest of Māle by Hassan Ranna Baderi Manikupānu and the rebuilding of the palace by Ismāil Māvālī. The inscription was first edited by BELL (1940, 173 f. with pl. A, 4); in MM it is listed as no. 1 of the stones pertaining to the mosque “Masgid ‘Afīf-ud-dīn” (no. 32), p. 82. For the contents cp. also ITMP 1-2.
- IDMEM 4: Inscription on the gravestone of one Kadīdā (Ḥadīḡa) Bīpānu, daughter of Āīša Kaṁbulege from Madidū (?), in Miladummadulu North or Šaviyani Atoll) and ‘Alī Takurupānu (?) from Māvilipti (?), died 20th Ġumād-al-awwal 1086 A.H. (≈ 11.8.1675), from the cemetery of the Eterekoilu (“Inner Palace”) Mosque. The inscription seems to be identical with that given as No. 9 in MM under mosque no. 32 (cp. IDMEM 1) on p. 83. Apparently, the stone no longer exists, but a photograph of it has been preserved (private property of HASAN AHMED MANIKU).
- IDMHM 1: Inscription on the western wall of the portal of the Friday Mosque (Hukuru Miskit) in Māle, attesting the donation of the Mosque by Sultan Ibrāhīm Iskandar I who reigned 1648-1687 A.D. It has not preserved but there is a picture of it in MHM (1984, 267). A first edition was published by BELL (1940, 171 f. under no. 6e), a second one can be found in MHM (1984, 305).
- IDMHM 2: Inscription on the gravestone of a certain Hussain Uttama Paḍiāru Takuru, son of Muḥammad Uttama Paḍiāru Takuru from Addū, died 14th Šābān 1072 A.H. (≈ 4.4.1662), from the graveyard of the Friday Mosque in Māle. The stone is located close to the south-western corner of the mosque; on its backside there is an Arabic inscription. MHM (1984) exhibits a picture of good quality (p. 381) and a transcription into Tāna (p. 282).
- IDMHM 3: Inscription on the gravestone of a certain Hussain Boḍu Dotimena Kinagepānu, son of Wazīr Muḥammad Pāmuladeri Maṇikupānu, died 6th Dū’l-ḡiḡḡa 1178 A.H. (≈ 27.5.1765), from the cemetery of the Friday Mosque. The stone was registered as no. XIII, 142 in MHM (1984, 372).
- IDMHM 4: Inscription on the gravestone of a certain Hussain Āmin (?) Kilagepānu, grandson (?) of ‘Umar Rannabaderi Kilage, died 18th Ġumād al-awwal 1089 A.H. (≈ 8.7.1678), from the graveyard of the Friday Mosque. The stone is listed as no. IV, 9 in MHM (1984, 346).
- IDMHM 5: Inscription on the tombstone of a certain Āminā Kilagepānu (?), daughter of Hussain Boḍu Dotimena Kilagepānu, from the cemetery of the Friday Mosque in Māle. Its dating has become almost illegible (13. xxx A.H. 11xx). Apparently, the stone was not registered in MHM (1984).
- IDMHM 6: Inscription on the gravestone of a certain Ibrāhīm (?) Hadeigiri Kalogepānu, died 20th Ġumād al-ḡīra 1131 A.H. (≈ 10.7.1719) (?), from the cemetery of the Friday Mosque in Māle. The inscription has been heavily damaged, the stone having been broken several times. Apparently, it was not registered in MHM (1984).

IDMMH 7: Inscription on the gravestone of a certain Al-ʿAzīz ʿAlī Rannabāderi Kilagepānu, son of Wazīr Muḥammad Fāmūladeri Manikupānu, died 29th Šābān 1196 A.H. (≈ 9.8.1782), from the cemetery of the Friday-Mosque in Māle. The stone was registered as no. II, 14 in MHM (1984, 327).

IDMMM 1-4: Inscription on the four walls of the so-called Medu Miskit of Māle, attesting the donation of the mosque by Sultan Ibrāhīm Iskandar I who reigned 1648-1687 A.D. MHM (1984) exhibits a reproduction (p. 173 ff.) as well as a transcription of the text into Tāna (p. 97 and 165 ff.). In MM the inscription is not mentioned in the treatise of Medu Miskit (no. 7, p. 14).

Inscriptions in Tāna

Inscriptions from Addū:

- ITAG 1: Unedited inscription on the gravestone of a certain Hussain Manikufānu, son of Hasan Manikufānu from Gan, died 24th Ġumād al-awwal A.H. 1148 (≈ 11.10.1735), from the cemetery of the mosque in Gan. Together with three other stones inscribed in Tāna (ITAG 2-4), the stone stands in a family grave.
- ITAG 2: Unedited inscription on the gravestone of a certain Ibrāhīm Manikufānu, son of Sultan ʿAlī bin as-sultān Ḥassan Manikufānu (ʿAlī VII / Ḥassan X., cf. ITAH 1 / 3), died 28th Ramaḍān 1171 (≈ 4.6.1758), from the cemetery of the mosque in Gan (cp. ITAG 1).
- ITAG 3: Unedited inscription on the gravestone of a certain Āminā Mānika (?), daughter (?) of Hussain Manikufānu (cp. ITAG 1), died 8th Ḥaġġ (Dūʾl-ḥiġġa) 1201 A.H. (≈ 20.9.1787), from the cemetery of the mosque in Gan.
- ITAG 6: Unedited inscription on the gravestone of a certain Āminā Kaṃbulēge, daughter of (Šuġā) bin Muḥammad Kalēge, died 23rd Rabī ul-awwal 1173 A.H. (≈ 13.11.1759), from the cemetery of the mosque in Gan (cp. ITAG 1).
- ITAH 1: Unedited inscription on the gravestone of a certain Ġabrāil Sāʿid bin al-ḥāġġī Ḥassan (= Sultan Ḥassan X., reigning A.H. 1113 ≈ A.D. 1701), son of Sultan ʿAlī (VII, reigning A.H. 1112 ≈ A.D. 1701), died 14th Šafar 1188 A.H. (≈ 26.4.1774), from the cemetery of the Friday Mosque in Hitadū. Together with the tombstone ITAH 2 (cf. below) this stone stands in the so-called “Sultan’s grave”. For the two sultans concerned cf. BELL (1924, 298).
- ITAH 2: Unedited inscription on the gravestone of a certain ʿAlī Manikufānu (Takuru?), died 15th Ġumād al-awwal 1205 A.H. (≈ 20.1.1791), from the cemetery of the Friday Mosque in Hitadū.
- ITAH 3: Unedited inscription on the gravestone of a Wazīr Ḥassan bin ʿAlī bin al-sultān ḥāġġī Ḥassan (X) bin al-sultān ʿAlī al-Karīm (VII, cf. ITAH 1 above), died 24th Muḥarrām 1222 A.H. (≈ 3.4.1807), from the cemetery of the Friday Mosque in Hitadū.

- ITAH 5: Unedited inscription on the gravestone of a certain ʿAīṣa Manika, daughter (?) of Hassan Manikufānu, died 20th Muḥarram 1179 (≈ 9.7.1765), from the cemetery of the Friday Mosque in Hitadū. This and another stone (ITAG 5) stand in the so-called “donor’s grave”.
- ITAH 6: Unedited inscription on the gravestone of a certain Muḥammad Takurufānu, son of Yūsuf Faḥḍia Takurufānu (?), died 20th Dūʾl-qāda 1134 A.H. (≈ 1.9.1722), from the cemetery of the Friday Mosque in Hitadū.
- ITAM 1: Unedited inscription on the gravestone of a certain ʿAminā Bīfānu, daughter of Sittī Bīfānu and Mḥammad Boḍu Takurufānu, died 1st Ḥaḡḡ (Dūʾl-ḥiḡḡa) 1161 A.H. (≈ 22.11.1749), from the cemetery in Mīdū.

Inscriptions from Fuaʾ Mulaku:

- ITFM 2: Unedited inscription on the gravestone of a certain Ibrāhīm, son of Ḥussain Fānu, died 4th Dūʾl-qāda (?) 1290 A.H. (≈ 24.12.1873), from the cemetery of Daḍumagu in Fuaʾ Mulaku.

Inscriptions from Māle:

- ITMHM 1: Inscription on the gravestone of a certain Muḥammad Manikufānu, son of Fāmulaḍeri Māikufānu (?), died 20th Dūʾl-qāda (x13x), from the cemetery of the Friday Mosque in Māle. The stone is registered as no. I, 52 in MHM (1984, 320).
- ITMHM 2: Inscription on the gravestone of a certain Ibrāhīm Māikufānu, son of a Wazīr Hassan Haku[ra]i Takurufānu (cf. ITMHM 4; for the person in question cf. BELL 1924, 298) and ʿAminā Manikufānu from Fuā Mulaku, died 3rd Raḡab 1219 A.H. (≈ 8.10.1804), from the cemetery of the Friday Mosque in Māle. The stone is registered as no. I, 48 in MHM (1984, 319).
- ITMHM 3: Inscription on the gravestone of a certain Fāṭumā (sic, in Arabic) Manikufānu, grand-daughter of ʿUmar Boḍu Baḍeri Takurufānu, from Adḍū, died 12th Dūʾl-qāda 1190 A.H. (≈ 23.12.1776), from the cemetery of the Friday Mosque in Māle. The stone is registered as no. I, 46 in MHM (1984, 319).
- ITMHM 4: Inscription on the gravestone of a certain Fāṭumā Manikufānu, daughter of the Great Wazīr Hassan Hakuraʾ Takurufānu (cf. ITMHM 2) from Takandū (Tiladummati North / Hā-Alif Atoll), died 12th Dūʾl-qāda 1195 A.H. (≈ 30.10.1781), from the cemetery of the Friday Mosque in Māle. The stone is registered as no. I, 45 in MHM (1984, 318 f.).
- ITMHM 7: Inscription on the gravestone of a certain Hawwā Manikufānu, daughter of Kakai Don ʿAlī Takurufānu and Fāṭuma Fānu from Boḍugalu, died 9th Rabīʿ al-awwal (?) 1193 A.H. (≈ 27.3.1779), from the cemetery of the Friday Mosque in Māle. The stone is registered as no. III, 4 in MHM (1984, 334).

- ITMKM 1: Inscription in the outer wall of the Kaluvakaru Mosque in Māle which attests the foundation of the mosque by Sultan Hassan Nūr-ud-dīn (reigning A.H. 1193-1213 ≈ A.D. 1779-1799) in the tenth year of his reign. This mosque, whose original place was in the middle of the main street of Māle (Boḍu Magu) in Henveru quarter, was transferred to the south-eastern corner of the Sultan's Park in the 1980ies (private information from HASSAN AHMED MANIKU).
- ITMP 1-2: Inscriptions on two wooden beams which were originally affixed outside and inside of the lintel above the portal of the Sultan's Palace; today both inscriptions are exhibited in the Māle Museum. Their content (similar to that of the Dives akuru inscription IDMEM 3 but using other words) is about the conquest of Māle, which was accompanied by the kidnapping of Sultan Muḥammad ʿImād-ud-dīn III, by Malabar conquerors on the 13th Šafar 1166 A.H. (≈ 12.12.1752), the reconquest of Māle by Hassan Ranna Baderi Manikufānu, and the reconstruction of the palace by a certain Ismāʿil Māvā. The inscription was first edited by BELL (1940, 174 f., no. 8).
